Directions:

Sally helped John clean his desk. Take a card, Sally! Encourage good work and positive behavior in your classroom with this fun-filled reward system.

- Use letters for the "Rewards" chart header. Decorate six pockets with a mini accent, taping the pockets to the chart as shown.
- Write rewards on index cards. For example, "15 extra minutes on the computer." Decorate them with stickers.
- Insert reward cards in pockets. When children display good behavior or are kind and helpful, they take a reward card from a pocket.
- Take great pride in being recognized for accomplishments and positive behavior.

Make It Your Own:

For a fun twist, add student-created rewards to the pockets.
