

Furry Friends™ Notes 'n News T-8731

There so many fun ways to use this versatile set to teach subjects and showcase student work. Here are three to get you started!

Make class rules a collaborative project. After a discussion about class rules, invite students to brainstorm the rules they think are important. Suggest a few to get the discussion moving. When the class has selected rules, vote on your favorites and add them to your display. Use Ready Letters® to spell "OUR CLASS RULES" and then write rules on the various box pieces. Keep this display fresh and interactive by sparking discussions, showing examples, and asking for new ideas.

A job chart can be an engaging display! Use the different set pieces to list your classroom jobs, and post student names near their tasks. Furry Friends™ Name Tags (T-69040) or pages from Furry Friends™ Note Pads (T-72090), held by Furry Friends™ Mini Accents pieces (T-10848), are great ways to continue the theme when posting students' names.

Make a learning connection for word families. Write the onset or rime for each word family on a Balloon Mini Accent (T-10810) and use a ribbon to connect the balloon to a set piece so that the friend appears to be holding the balloon. Write words from each word family on the set pieces, and add to the display. Encourage students to create new lists for an ever-changing learning display.
